

Dear Quilters,

Time is marching right along it seems...so I need to get the new classes listed for June as June will be here in the blink of an eye. There are 4 new classes plus the continuing classes that just about fill up the rest of the calendar month.

I'm very excited to announce that Mt. Pleasant has two new teachers for the month of June:

Many, many of you have asked for a hand quilting class- Sue Kernahan who is an experienced hand quilter has agreed to teach a hand quilting basics class. Take these skills and sit out under your favorite tree at home or deck or camping spot and hand quilt away. The more you do the easier and better your hand quilting becomes.

Linda Rauld who is the owner and designer of Purse-O-Nalities of Palm Harbor will be joining us on Saturday, June 29th to teach her pattern: Suzanne's Bag. In addition to sewing the bag, you will be learning a lot of tips for general construction of bags too. I have had the pleasure of being with Linda and her sister many times - you will be highly entertained!

The four new classes for June are:

Think Summer!

Wednesday, June 12th 1:30 - 4:00, OR Friday, June 14th 10:00 - 1:30

This is the 2nd of Barb's new "3D Think" series. There will be four in the 3D wall hanging/door banner series to celebrate the seasons: "Think Spring", "Think Summer", "Think Fall", and "Think Winter". They all will have a 3D feature and will be approximately 12" x 22". No need to bring sewing machines to class. This will be a demo/working workshop. Bring scissors and a marking tool. (I like a mechanical pencil for tracing.) Kits available. Barb almost has it done - picture will be coming next week!
