

Mt Pleasant Quilting Company

Dear Quilters,

Before I forget to tell you, we will be closed Saturday, August 31st so my staff can enjoy their holiday weekend with their family too. It seems like we just started summer and now it's almost coming to a close. Bummer!

Anyway, the NEW classes for September are listed below - 7 in all - and of course all the continuing classes will still be going on.

Take a look at the Anniversary Sale write-up. Eighteen years - doesn't seem possible. The tent will still be out front. Special sales inside! A special prize drawing each day - read to see what 75 has to do with it!! You won't want to miss out on this sale!

Until next time.....

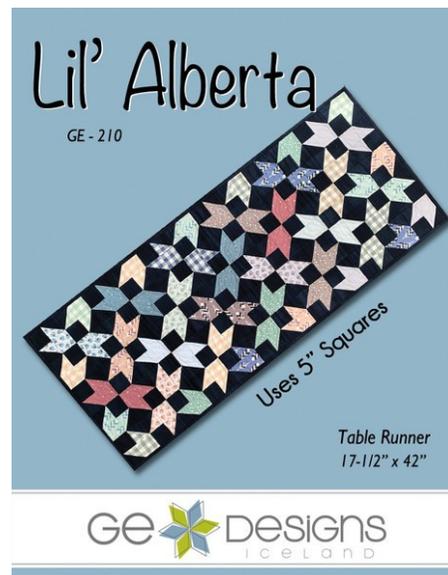

Sewingly,
Barb

This tablerunner is much easier to make than it looks, using the Stripology Squared Mini ruler and 5" fabric squares. Put a little background fabric with it and "viola" you have a new tablerunner to accent your home. If you don't know how to use the ruler, you certainly will after this class.
